Will England have to be whipped a second time before she lets go of South Africa?

If the city of Portland would prosper let it learn the Salem way of doing things.

The trust has raised the price of tobacco ten per cent. Users of the weed and retailers will chew that proposition over.

With wheat forty, potatoes twenty and hops next to nothing, let us help those we can. Organization alone can help hops.

Salem City Recorder Judah's monthly report for November shows NO criminal cases with costs at the expense of Marion county.

To the credit of the Republicans it should be said they took no official action to interfere in the city election after withdrawing their ticket.

McKinley assures one of the Methodist Bishops that on the wine question he is a strict Methodist. Quite unnecessary; they'd all vote for you anyhow.

By virtue of its excellent Associated Press report THE JOURNAL Tuesday evening printed the President's message that was sent to congress Tuesday afternoon.

Albany Democrat: The Salem Journal refers to its coming Christmas number as "The End of the Century Christmas Journal." Correct you are, Mr Journal.

The people of Eugene are to have a training class in Scientific Cooking. The people up that way would be thankful probably to be instructed in the science of getting something to cook.

J. J. Whitney, the veteran Democratic legislator of Linn county, was made an alderman of Albany, Monday. If he does as well for the city as he did for the county, no one can complain.

Now that politics is eliminated from our city government there is no good or desirable thing to be accomplished, but with proper management it may have the support of the entire business community.

Hasn't this city had quite enough of boy managers? Can't the Republican committee jump up a city manager of larger political caliber than Jimmie Oliver or Danville Tappan?

The JOURNAL is an independent paper but it had enough regard and respect for the President of our country to give its readers all they could read in one evening of the most important historical message of the year.

AROUND THE EVENING

The Scientific American devotes two pages to South Africa in the Dec. 2 No.

The latest of the Beacon Biographies of Small, Maynard & Co., Boston is Aaron Burr, by Henry Childs Merquin. At 75 cents per volume this series aims to supply a compilation by an eminent authority of all the important information about the most noted Americans.

There is a dated calendar of events of the person's life, as well as a complete bibliography. Send for their prospectus. The Bulletin of the American Academy of Political and Social Science can be had by those interested by all dressing at Station B, Philadelphia.

A Leading article of Harper's Weekly for Dec. 2 is "Prosperity." The Weekly illustrations and contents takes the side of England in South Africa.

Life for Nov. 30 is full of cute things in print and pictures. Its editorials are sane and sensible but never irritating or exasperating. It takes up the amusing side of non-essentials. On essential matters it takes the clean and just side. Life is the one New York illustrated weekly humorous paper that is never coarse and always witty. Call for it at the news stands and one trial will convince you that it is what you have longed for all your life and will never be without.

"Captain Chap" is a healthful book by Frank Stockton, a prince of writers for young folks. This story contains the adventures of several boys on land and water, under the care of an experienced mature person who knows everything from bears to alligator. While there is considerable excitement and spirit to the book it is only of that kind which naturally flows from Stockton's vivid imagination. Price $1, Lippincott & Co., Philadelphia.

The Christmas Bookman is as its custom the most month-watering morsel that will tempt the mind, eye, heart, brain and soul of book lovers. Janice Meredith which has appeared in this monthly exclusively as a serial nears conclusion. The twenty-four departments completely cover the field of literary culture not only of all the great languages but also of the great modern languages.

F. Oppen, the artist whose drawings are so well known in the comic papers, has put a lot of fun into the 250 illustrations with which he has adorned a fine new edition of Mother Goose's Nursery Rhymes. The versatility he has shown is something wonderful, and it must be a child very hard to please who is not amused by the artist's efforts to bring out the humor in these familiar jingles.

Among the realistic semi-historical novels of the day few will appeal to the youth of the land with the intense interest of "The Lost Gold of the Montezumas," by W. O. Stoddard. The book deals with the pioneer days in Texas, and among its characters figure such staunch men as Sam Houston, Davy Crockett, Col. Bowie, and other noted frontiersmen who made history in their day. The story involves the hidden treasures beyond the Rio Grande which fired the brain of many a hero in early days. Price $1.00, Lippincott & Co., Philadelphia.

The Insurance Press of New York, is the most complete weekly newspaper "for insurers and insured" that is published. It is edited by Franklin Webster, Emil Schwab and T. H. Swartz, a Yankee, a German and a Dutchman, and the price is $5.00 a year. The information it contains seems to be reliable and up to the standards of the best journalism.

A Good Book for the Young. We take pleasure in commending to our family of readers "The Boys of Marmion Prairie," by Gertrude Smith, author of "Ten Little Comedies," illustrated with decorated cloth covers, $1.50. Little, Brown & Co., Boston.

It is a story for boys and girls, dealing with Western life. Each of the three boys that gave the name to the story, "The Boys of Marmion Prairie," has a number of adventures. "Go" Mercer went off on a distant excursion for pean nuts, and then came upon a delightful stranger, a young college man, who took him to the camp of a wonderful Indian. "Luke" White, the second boy, and the least amiable of the lot, showed bravery before a steer, and thus gained confidence in himself. "Patty" Landers, however, is really the hero of the story. His love for a beautiful white horse, called Napoleon or Naps, his adventures and struggles to keep this friend near him in spite of sickness, horse thieves, and doubt about ownership, and the quieter but not less welcome incidents of his home life make up an interesting book.

The story is a good one to put into the hands of boys, because the author never forgets the latent manliness of her young heroes. Patty, the boy, is destined to become a great man, and in certain acts the reader is given a stimulating hint of this.

One On the Scotch. A. S. Barnes & Co., New York, will issue at once a new biography of Scott entitled "Sir Walter Scott," by James Hay, author of "Johnson: His Characteristics and Aphorisms," and "Swift: The Mystery of His Life and Love." Mr. Hay is an Englishman who endeavors to sketch Scott intellectually and socially, avoiding extremes of judgment and interpretation. It is not a life of Scott in the ordinary acceptance of the term, but rather an autobiography, with portraits of character and career contributed by those who lived in social nearness to him, such as Lockhart and Skene, Constable and the brilliant young Laidlaw, the Ettrick minstrel, and others. An excellent portrait of Scott embellishes the volume.

The style of the writer is such as to hold the interest of the reader throughout, and the book should be received as an important and desirable addition to our knowledge of one who for a generation was the enchanter of Europe. (1 vol., 12 mo., 312 pp., cloth, gilt top, price $1.50.)

Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup is still in the lead. The people seem to like this old reliable cough medicine, and we don't blame them; it is the best remedy for a deep-seated cough or cold, and will effect a cure in one day.

Mrs. R. Churchill, Berlin, Va., says: "Our baby was covered with runlets, sores, DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured her." Beware of worthless counterfeits. Stokes Drug Stores.

Tenth Anniversary. Monday was the 10th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. L. Kibeleard about 25 of their friends gathered at their home on Front street and joined them in celebrating. The evening was spent in cards and other social entertainment. Beautiful prizes were given those who competed in the games, after which a delicious refreshment season was indulged in which satisfied the most fastidious guest. Mr. and Mrs. Kibeleard are exquisite entertainers. The party will long be remembered by those present by the pleasant impression left on all. At a late hour all wished the happy couple that they might celebrate their diamond wedding and before departing left their little token of remembrance in the shape of a gift of some kind.

MARRIED. PORTER-BROWER.—At the residence of the officiating pastor, Tuesday, Dec. 5, 1900, Mrs. Addison Porter, of Hollywood, Mich., to J. D. Brower, of Salem, by Rev. P. S. Knight. Both parties are deaf-mutes.

Do you remember how you felt in the mornings when you were a boy? How good it was to begin a new day? How hungry you came to table? How tired you went to bed? How soundly you slept? Don't you find yourself saying sometimes, how I wish I could get up like that boy, eager for the day and feeling fit for it? And then don't you turn away with a sigh as if the wish was impossible to get?

It's not impossible to get back that glad boyish feeling again. It only means getting back health. Put your stomach in order and see how soon your sleep will be dreamless, your rest sound, your appetite revived, your work a pleasure. The best remedy for all ailments of the stomach and nutritive organs is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Try it and join the great army of sick people made well by its use. Nothing is "just as good." If you go for "Discovery" get "Discovery."

The praise I would like to give "Golden Medical Discovery" I cannot utter in words or describe with pen. I writes James B. Ambrose, M.D., of 1005 North St., Washington, Pa. "I was taken down with what our physicians said was indigestion. I doctored with the best around here and found no relief. I wrote you and you sent me a question blank to fill out and I did so and you sent me a bottle of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. I took three bottles and I felt so good that I stopped work as I am now. I have no symptoms of indigestion or trouble of any kind now."

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 10-cent stamp for "Discovery" paper covered book, or 31 cent for cloth-bound.

Foul-Smelling Catarrh.

Catarrh is one of the most obstinate diseases, and hence the most difficult to get rid of. There is but one way to cure it. The disease is in the blood, and all the sprays, washes and inhalant mixtures in the world can have no permanent effect whatever upon it. Swift's Specific cures Catarrh permanently, for it is the only remedy which can reach the disease and force it from the blood.

Mr. B. P. McAllister, of Harrodsburg, Ky., had Catarrh for years. He writes: "I could see no improvement whatever, though I was constantly treated with sprays and washes, and different inhalant remedies. In fact, I could feel that each winter I was worse than the year previous."

Finally it was brought to my notice that Catarrh was a blood disease, and after thinking over the matter, I saw it was unreasonable to expect to be cured by remedies which only reached the surface. I then decided to try S. S. S., and after a few bottles were used, I noticed a perceptible improvement. Continuing the remedy, the disease was forced out of my system, and a complete cure was the result. I advise all who have this dreadful disease to abandon their local treatment, which has never done good, and to suffer Swift's Specific, a real blood remedy, and cure it.

To continue the wrong treatment of Catarrh is to continue to suffer. Swift's Specific is a real blood remedy, and cures obstinate, deep-seated diseases, which other remedies have no effect whatever upon. It promptly reaches Catarrh, and never fails to cure even the most aggravated cases.

Dr. J. F. Cook, the Botanical Specialist, Succeeds Where Other Fail.

To whom it may concern: This is to certify that Bertha P. Conner, of Mt. Angel precinct, Marion county, Oregon, has suffered from a cancerous growth in the left ear for about three years. The growth was cut out twice and burned out once by Albany Physicians, but the growth came back as bad as ever, and pained her so badly that she had to be taken from school. After three weeks' treatment by Dr. J. F. Cook, of Salem, Oregon, the Botanical Specialist, the growth entirely disappeared, and at this date, four months since treatment was begun, the growth has not reappeared, and the ear has entirely healed leaving only the scars inflicted by the Albany doctors.

I hereby certify that the above statement is absolutely true, and that Bertha P. Conner, the patient mentioned in the affidavit, has resided in my family since early childhood, bearing the relationship to me of niece.

H. C. LONG, Subscribed and sworn to before me this eighth day of June, 1899. W. W. Hall, county clerk of Marion county Oregon.
